Need to write a research paper? We have you covered from start to finish!

1. Use our handy online system to schedule a research appointment with a librarian for a one-on-one consultation, or stop by the information desk for assistance.

2. Find full text articles, reference materials, or primary sources through our thousands of online resources on the database page, or search the online and print library collection through Primo.

3. Refworks online citation management tool can help you manage your citations and even generate a bibliography when you are ready.

4. Reserve a study room, or visit the quiet zone on the third floor to buckle down and get to work writing.

5. Ready to edit? Visit the Writing Center located on the first floor for help fine tuning your paper or schedule an appointment online.

6. If you need to print, submit your print job from your laptop via the wireless print link, or from a library computer. Release your print job at any of the four library printers.

More study space available in our new classroom! Located on the main floor, and every table has a plug!
